

GREEN ARTS CENTRE MITCHAM

STORIES OF OUR STREETS WRITING COMPETITION

THE STRANGE SPIKE BALL IN MITCHAM

Once upon a time, there was a boy called Dylan. Dylan had a best friend called Jacob. The boys were really shocked by what they found.

“What is that?” asked Jacob. “I don’t know?” said Dylan. “I’m a jigglepuff spiky!” said the mystery voice coming out from the dark bush. “You look incredible,” announced Dylan and Jacob.

Suddenly, just when they started getting to know each other, a huge grey cloud came over! “Don’t worry, I’ll save you guys!” Jigglepuff turned into a really spiky ball to save Dylan and Jacob getting soaking wet.

“Thank you Jigglepuff Spiky!” exclaimed the boys in shock, “Don’t worry guys, you can call me Jiggle for short,” announced Jiggle.

When it was the end of the school day, Dylan and Jacob texted their mums if they could go on an adventure. So the boys and Jiggle set off on their adventure. When they were on their way they got lost in the woods. “Oh no!” exclaimed the boys. “What?” asked Jigglepuff. “We’re lost!”

They tried finding a sign back to school but there wasn’t any! “We’re gone forever!” said Jacob loudly. Suddenly, Jiggle turned into a porthole back to school!

They got to school and the lesson learnt is never find a path which leads somewhere you don’t know.

Written by DYLAN
Liberty Primary School

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

