STORIES OF OUR STREETS

THE THIEF

Today at ASDA, someone was shoplifting a lighter and some candy. The alarm went off, and the thief escaped and ran towards Cannons House.

The police arrived and chased the thief. He was arrested and taken to the police station, but he escaped again.

He left Mitcham and went to Streatham on Monday 10th March 2005.

The police arrived at Norbury railway station after finding out the thief was in Streatham.

The thief kept moving and went towards Victoria. He took the Victoria line to King's Cross, then took a semi-fast Metropolitan line train to Chesham in the countryside.

In Chesham, the police arrived on Wednesday 12th March 2005. The thief was arrested again but travelled further, going towards Aylesbury. He changed at Chalfont & Latimer station and took a Chiltern Railways train to Aylesbury.

The police kept searching every countryside area. Finally, the thief was found in Aylesbury.

He was taken far away from Mitcham and brought back to Mitcham Police Station on Thursday 13th March 2005.
